

WHITE HOUSE HOLIDAY HOW-TOS:
Star Ball Ornaments

The East Landing of the White House pays tribute to our Armed Forces and their families. Volunteers personalized plain blue glass balls to create our Blue Star ornaments, and you can make them at home using materials found online or at any craft supplies store.

A Blue Star ornament in the East Landing of the White House, December, 2012.

Materials

- Blue ball-shaped ornaments with a matte finish
- Red rhinestones
- Clear rhinestones
- Rhinestone glue
- Rhinestone applicator

Assembly

1. Start by applying the inner star with the clear rhinestones and rhinestone glue.
2. Create the outer star with the red rhinestones using rhinestone glue.
