

Happy Hanukkah!

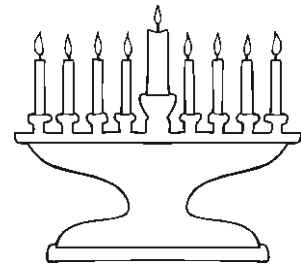

ACROSS

2. If you spin this symbol on the dreidel, you get everything in the pot.
4. A toy often played with at Hanukkah.
7. Another common spelling of the word Hanukkah.
10. If you spin this symbol on the dreidel, you must pay one candy into the pot.
11. A tiny amount of this burned for eight days.
12. Hanukkah is also known as the Festival of _____.
15. If you spin this symbol on the dreidel, you get half the contents of the pot.
16. One is lit each night of Hanukkah.
18. Potato pancakes served during Hanukkah.

DOWN

1. A large, decorative candlestick.

3. The Jewish family that led a revolt against the Greek army.
5. Number of days Hanukkah is celebrated.
6. A special candle used to light the other Hanukkah candles.
8. Hanukkah takes place during the month of _____ on the Jewish calendar.
9. The king who put statues of Greek gods in the temple.
13. A place of worship in Jerusalem.
14. Gold-wrapped chocolate coin.
17. If you spin this symbol on the dreidel, you get nothing.

Happy Hanukkah!

