

word games

Vocabulary can be reinforced by using a variety of game formats. Focus may be placed upon word building, spelling, meaning, sound/symbol correspondences, and words inferred from sentence context.

TEACHING TECHNIQUES. The full communicative potential of these games can be realized through good spirited team competition. Working in pairs or in small groups, students try to be the first to correctly complete a task.

These games can be used at the end of a lesson or before introducing new material as a “change of pace” activity. Teachers should allow sufficient time for class discussion after the game has been completed.

Sound/Symbol Surprises

1. Considering the pronunciation of laugh, women, and nation, how would you pronounce

2. Considering the pronunciation of Thomas (or thyme), weigh, school, glamour, and handsome (or handkerchief), what English word might be spelled

3. Considering the pronunciation of said, pneumonia, of, action, belle, dough, and shepherd, what English word might be spelled

The poem below is full of sound/symbol surprises in English.

I take it you already know
Of tough and bough and cough and dough?
Some falter, (but I think not you)
On hiccough, thorough, tough and through.
Well done! And now you wish, perhaps,
To learn of less familiar traps?

Beware of heard, a dreadful word,
That looks like beard and sounds like bird.
And dead; It's said like bed not bead—
For goodness sake, don't call it deed!
Watch out for meat and great and threat
They rhyme with suite and straight and debt.

A moth is not the moth in mother
Nor both in bother, broth in brother;
And here is not a match for there,
Nor dear and fear for bear and pear—
And then there's dose and rose and lose;
Just look these up, with goose and choose.

Now, cork and work; and card and ward;
And font and front; and word and sword;
And do and go; and thwart and cart—
Come, come, I've hardly made a start!
A dreadful language? Sakes alive!
I'd mastered it when I was five!

Did Dinosaurs have armor?

Armored dinosaurs such as the thirty-five-foot-long and ten-foot-wide ankylosaurus (an-key-low-SORE-us), which means “fused lizard,” were like living tanks! Ankylosaurus had a thick, strong skull, wide bony plates and studs along its back and sides, and protective eyelids made of bone. And if those weren’t enough, ankylosaurus also had a remarkable tail. At the end of the tail were two large lobes of bone. If attacked, this dinosaur could swing this deadly tail from side to side like a club. With such an incredible weapon, ankylosaurus could easily knock down a predator or even break an enemy’s leg.

The scrambled letters on the right form words when added to the letters of ankylosaurus’s name on the left. Can you solve the puzzle?
 Hint: The words can all be found in the text above.

Palindromes

A palindrome may be defined as a word, phrase, sentence, verse, or (sometimes) number that reads the same backwards as forwards. Some examples of words that are palindromes are: POP, SEES, EVE, DID, ROTATOR.

Probably the best-known sentence that is a palindrome is MADAM, I'M ADAM—presumably uttered upon introducing himself to Eve (herself a palindrome!) in the garden of Eden. Another one that has been around for some time is Napoleon's (fictitious) utterance ABLE WAS I ERE I SAW ELBA. A third candidate for the trio of well-known palindromes is A MAN, A PLAN, A CANAL—PANAMA!

Many palindromes have a stilted unnatural sound. For example: STEP ON NO PETS and LIVE NOT ON EVIL. (Don't step on any pets and Don't live on evil certainly do not qualify as palindromes, but they would be at least slightly more likely candidates for everyday conversation.)

Palindrome sentences seem to thrive on imperatives and negatives. Sometimes they suggest a plausible context, as DRAW, O COWARD!—if you think of the swashbuckling days of swordplay. In other cases there is a certain quaintness: TIS IVAN ON A VISIT. Or they may be quite overwhelming in their bombast: LIVE, O DEVIL! REVEL EVER! LIVE! DO EVIL! and its more positive counterpart: DO O GOD, NO EVIL DEED, LIVE ON, DO GOOD!

Occasionally a palindrome may be a question (usually beginning with was and ending with saw): WAS IT A RAT I SAW? and WAS IT A CAR OR A CAT I SAW? and WON'T LOVERS REVOLT NOW? Some of the longer palindromes show a persistent ingenuity as well as imagination: DOC, NOTE I DISSENT; A FAST NEVER PREVENTS A FATNESS. I DIET ON COD. Which reminds us of the plaintive cry of one who has overindulged at the table: STRESSED WAS I ERE I SAW DESSERTS.

By far the most popular palindromic personage is Edna, who performs a variety of feats, usually in tandem: DENNIS AND EDNA SINNED.—PAT AND EDNA TAP.—ENID AND EDNA DINE. At last, a solo performance (though with an implied companion): TOO FAR, EDNA, WE WANDER AFOOT.

The following two palindromes, taken together, provide a family commentary: PA'S A SAP and MA IS AS SELFLESS AS I AM. Sometimes animals get into the act: A DOG; A PANIC IN A PAGODA and TEN ANIMALS I SLAM IN A NET.

Occasionally one comes across a natural palindrome, such as YREKA BAKERY—an actual bakery, located at 322 W. Miner Street, in the city of Yreka, California.

Reverse me

Related to the palindromes but more accessible to our knowledge and imagination, are pairs of words whose spellings are the reverse of each other. Some such pairs are : pool—loop, era—are, spot—tops, rail—liar, time—emit, pan—nap, reward—drawer, dog—god, tap—pat, keep—peek, gnat—tang, dial—laid, sag—gas, rat—tar, span—naps, no—on, lap—pal, sleep—peels, snap—pans, live—evil, step—pets (and many others). Such pairs of words provide the solutions to the following puzzles:

1. I'm the high point. Reverse me and I'm something to cook in.
2. I'm uncooked. Reverse me and I'm armed conflict.
3. I'm a portion of the whole. Reverse me and I'm something to catch (ensnare) something in.
4. I perceived with the eyes. Reverse me and I existed.
5. I'm a heavy weight. Reverse me and I'm a negative.
6. I'm a wild animal. Reverse me and I move like water.
7. I'm a number. Reverse me and I'm an open-meshed fabric used for catching fish.
8. I'm an obstruction used to hold back water. Reverse me and I'm crazy.
9. I was victorious. Reverse me and I'm the present time.
10. I dug minerals out of the ground. Reverse me and I'm a coarse cloth that jeans are made of.
