

Bailey's Dam

Across

- 2 - Name of the oldest vessel in the fleet; "thousands of beating hearts looked on", anxious to see if the vessel would safely go over the rocks.
- 6 - Lt. Col. Bailey was promoted to this type of general.
- 7 - Lt. Col. Bailey, who held this position in the Nineteenth Corps, had been a lumberjack in Wisconsin.
- 8 - Former loggers from this state helped build the northern dam.
- 9 - The name of the monitor which went over the falls, successfully, despite receiving a small hole

Down

- 1 - This word means a small group of navy ships.
- 2 - The Red River campaign was part of an effort to control this state.
- 3 - This is the name of the Union Admiral in the campaign.
- 4 - Snipers under this Confederate general hassled the Union forces.
- 5 - The vessels saved by Bailey had a value of two _____ dollars.

Across

11 - If the Red River Campaign had been successful, the Union would have attempted to invade this state.

Down

6 - This general coordinated with the Union admiral.

10 - This word means to destroy a vessel by cutting a hole in it and sinking it; so the enemy can't use the vessel.

12 - The Union boats needed this many feet of water to float.

Bailey's Dam

